
s to editorial
of Ms. Ferraro

gress ?

Ger-

account of the property sale also ed and unfair. It was worth more . Ferraro paid for it and not long r she sold her share that property was sold at a $200,000 profit. Moreover, it was not illegal for her to sell her share to her husband's partner and it would not have been illegal for her to sell her share directly to her husband.

The expression of opinion in editorials is perfectly proper, but editorials also ought to be both correct as to fact. If they contain evaluations, those evaluations ought to be balanced.

HAROLD WEISBERG
7627 Old Receiver Rd., Frederick

YOUR NAME CAME UP
AT LUNCH TODAY!